SIRROMET WINERY

Tuscan Terrace story

After a trip to Tuscany in 2005, owner Mrs Lurleen Morris created the “Amoroso” at Sirromet Winery, a typical Tuscan tree shaded convivial area adjacent to the Cellar Door. This attracted so much favourable comment Lurleen decided that to complete the experience, we needed to create a Tuscan Kitchen with a place for people to hold special events and enjoy the fantastic view over the rural property and out to Moreton Bay.

With an exclusive event marquee, state-of-the-art kitchen and 75 metre timber deck, the Tuscan Terrace was created. Although reminiscent of Tuscany, it is still Quintessentially Queensland, where you can enjoy the wonderful seasonal flavours of the freshest local produce prepared in traditional Tuscan homestyle cooking, all year round.
